READ—

Correspondence ending with letter No. C. 474—29-30, dated 5th—6th November 1930, from the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore, submitting proposals in the matter of constituting a new Taluk with Headquarters at Maddur.

ORDER No. R. 5469-528—L. R. 118-29-13, DATED 8TH APRIL 1931.

The creation of a new Taluk with Headquarters at Maddur has been under the consideration of Government for sometime. During the Dewan's Tour in Maddur and Mandya in 1928, it was brought to his notice that Mandya Taluk, which was already a very extensive charge, was certain to get much too heavy for being administered as one Taluk, with the development of wet cultivation under the Irwin Canal. Government consider that the time has now arrived for making suitable arrangements to cope with the great increase of revenue and other work consequent upon the extension of irrigation, and are pleased to direct that a new taluk be constituted with effect from 1st May 1931 under the name Maddur Taluk with Headquarters at Maddur and comprising the hoblis of Maddur, Koppa and Athagur of the present Mandya Taluk, and the Chickarasinakere hobli of the present Malvalli Taluk. The Maddur Taluk will consist of 169 villages in all, with a total area of 1,07,959 acres and a population of 80,972.

2. The establishment of the New Taluk will consist of:—

1 Amildar.	2 Gollars.
1 Taluk Sheristedar.	1 Dafterband.
1 Head Clerk.	1 Daffedar.
8 Clerks.	16 Peons.
4 Revenue Inspectors.
1 Shroff.

The total cost of the above establishment will be Rs. 13,393$\frac{1}{3}$ per annum and the cost during one month of the current year will be Rs. 1,116 $\frac{1}{10}$. As three Clerks, three Revenue Inspectors and six Peons of the Mandya Taluk and one Revenue Inspector and two Peons of Malvalli Taluk will be transferred to Maddur Taluk, the net extra cost including contingencies at Rs. 5 per mensem during the current year will therefore amount to Rs. 729 $\frac{17}{20}$ (vide statement appended).

3. As regards accommodation for the Taluk Office, the Deputy Commissioner and the Revenue Commissioner have proposed that it might be located in the old Taluk Cutcherry Building at Maddur after carrying out certain additions and alterations costing of Rs. 3,045. This proposal is approved. The Police Station and the Sub-Registrar's Office now located in the building should be shifted to the old travellers' bungalow which will be repaired and suitably adapted for the purpose at a cost of Rs. 3,438. A sum of Rs. 2,000 is sanctioned for the purchase of the necessary articles of furniture for the new Taluk Office.

4. For the items named above as well as for establishment charges during the current year, a sum of Rs. 9,500 is sanctioned. The expenditure involved will be met by a reappropriation of the grants surrendered by the Revenue Department.
